Dear Ms. Rogers,

On the laying of Criminal Charges against
Martin Keith Wirick, a disbarred lawyer

The above-noted matter was under the sole investigation of the Vancouver Police Department.

I wrote to Chief Constable Jamie Graham concerning this matter by letter dated 20 May, 2004, a copy of which is enclosed.

On June 4, 2004 at approximately 9:00 .A.M. I received a call from a person who identified himself to me as Detective Meanly of the Vancouver Police Department who said he was the liaison officer for the Chief Constable. (I understand that Detective Meanly has now retired). In the telephone conversation Detective Meanly told me that there were 100,000 documents to go through and it would take another two years before charges were laid. He said there would not be separate charges (referring to Mr. Terasem Gill, Mr. Wirick's client). He further told me that there were 12 Police Officers working on the file.

The two years have now passed and I am not aware of any charges being laid against Mr. Wirick.

By letter dated July 27, 2006 I wrote to Chief Constable Graham about the matter but to date I have not had a reply from the Chief Constable, not even an acknowledgement that he received my letter. A copy of the letter is enclosed.

I am informed that the Special Compensation Fund of the Law Society has paid out over Thirty($30,000,000.00)Dollars in claims as a result of Mr. Wirick's conduct which is being paid through an assessment of $600.00 per lawyer, the majority of whom are not in the high income brackets, popular notions to the contrary.

I enclose various correspondence which I have had with various law enforcement authorities as to the lack of progress in laying charges against Mr. Wirick including which I have recently received from the Deputy Commissioner's office of the R.C.M.P. which I would ask you to compare with the letter I received from that office dated February 6, 2006.

As a personal reference, I was called to the Bar on May 16, 1957 and retired as a practicing lawyer on January 1, 2006.

I am concerned about the time that has been put into this file by members of the Law Enforcement Agencies involved and, more importantly the lack of results from their efforts, that is if there were any real efforts made in having charges laid against Mr. Wirick

Yours truly,

Anthony J. Jasich
